

As a regular customer of SBC/PacBell at my place of business, I am fully in support of their petition to provide long distance service. It is effective and efficient if there is a common provider for the various services provided through our phone company.